a luxury bed & breakfast

Dog Guest Policies and Agreement

Whether two legs or four, our guest's comfort is our number one priority here at The Ruby of Crested Butte. In order to ensure a quality stay for all guests, we have outlined our Dog Guest policies below.

1. Our people guests are responsible for any and all damage caused by our dog guests.
2. All dogs must be on a leash and within your control while in the public areas of The Ruby.
3. Dog guests are not permitted on any furniture within The Ruby (unless they are able to sit fully on your lap). Doggie beds are provided for the comfort of each dog guest.
4. For their comfort, we do not permit dog guests to be left alone in their guest room. Being in a strange environment can be extremely stressful, therefore, we encourage you to bring your own crate or we can possibly provide a crate for you. Since your pup is on vacation and wants to have fun too, we do not permit our pet guests to be left in a crate for more than two hours at a time. If this occurs or if the dog acts in a manner that may disturb other guests, the innkeepers reserve the right to remove dog from the crate and "dog sit" the dog as deemed necessary by the innkeepers to prevent further disturbances. The guests will be charged the applicable rate for any services provided.
5. Additional charges may be applied for dogs that are excessively shedding, dirty, or malodorous.
6. If you do not have a crate or we are unable to provide a crate for you, all dog guests must play outside or wait in your car during breakfast each morning. (We have many trees and posts to tie off doggie guests while you eat if they are prone to running away.)
7. We permit up to two dogs per guest room.
8. All dog guests must be friendly, quiet, house trained, at least 12 weeks old, and in good health. Verification from your veterinarian stating your pet is current with all vaccinations is required prior to checking in.
9. All "incidents" of dog urination or elimination in the house must be reported immediately in order to minimize damage. Additional fees will apply if not reported immediately.
10. Dog sitting services may be available from The Ruby at a rate of $10 per hour per dog.
11. The Ruby collects a $5 per dog per night voluntary donation for the Paradise Animal Welfare Society.
